

Special impact fees or assessment district to the address a projects short and long term impact on police services. Information on how it was devised and what the charges are for land uses. Creative ways to mitigate development project impacts on police services.

- Some jurisdictions have created a Community Facilities District for major developments. A yearly assessment is levied on each parcel as a police impact fee's. (Suisun City)
- Operations Impact Fee's that, among other criteria, takes into account the distance a new development is from the primary city service centers. The impact fee is used to provide the incremental costs of providing services to outlying areas of the City. (City Lancaster) (Government Code 66000).
- The Mellos-Roos Community Facilities Tax can be used to finance services (Government Code 53311).

Also, a jurisdiction can place a measure on the ballot for a special tax for police and fire services (Government Code 53978).

- In blighted areas destined to be developed check RDA and/or CDBG funds.