

The City of Los Angeles, Police Department (PD) is seeking a Chief Police Psychologist who will manage the Behavioral Science Services (BSS) professional staff and services. The Chief Police Psychologist is responsible for professional and ethical administration and operation of psychological services and wellness programs within the PD. Salary $130,165 to $190,279. Visit tiny.cc/JobCentral and select “Exempt Jobs” for more information about the responsibilities and duties of Chief Police Psychologist, BSS services, and application requirements. Deadline to apply is Wednesday, September 30, 2020, 11:59p.m. (PST), or until sufficient applications are received.