

THE CITY OF ANTIOCH

Invites your interest for the position of Police Lieutenant

Antioch Police Department—Brian Addington, Interim Chief of Police
Recruitment Services Provided by Kreins' Consulting

Antioch—The Community

Antioch is located on the banks of the San Joaquin River in Northern California, just off of Highway 4, in Contra Costa County. With a population of over 114,000 people, Antioch has become the heart of Eastern Contra Costa County, offering a variety of employment, shopping and vast recreational activities.

Families with dreams of home ownership come to Antioch for its stunning neighborhoods, parks, and natural beauty. Land remains plentiful and affordable, compared with other parts of the Bay Area. Antioch is one of the few Bay Area communities that offers affordable housing.

Retail and office space in Antioch typically leases for 20 to 30 percent less than comparable space in Central Contra Costa County

There's always something to do in Antioch; like the County Fair, playing a round of golf, or roaring down slides at Prewett Family Water Park. There really is something for everyone who lives, works, and plays in Antioch.

City Government

The City of Antioch is a full-service city operating under a City Council/City Manager form of government. The City Council includes a Mayor, Vice-Mayor and three Council members elected to four-year, staggered terms. The City Clerk and the City Treasurer are elected positions, while the City Manager and City Attorney positions are appointed by the City Council.

Policy making and legislative authority is vested with the City Council. The City Council's main duties include passing ordinances, adopting the budget, appointing committees, and hiring both the City Manager and City Attorney.

The City Manager is responsible for implementing the policies and enforcing the ordinances adopted by the City Council, overseeing day-to-day operations of city government, and appointing the heads of the various city departments. The City recently established a Police Oversight Standing Committee.

Antioch is a tight-knit community and it will be imperative for the Police Lieutenant to be actively engaged in the community to gain their trust, respect, and involvement. National Night Out Against Crime is highly valued by residents in Antioch.

The Police Department

The members of the Antioch Police Department are dedicated to providing the highest quality police services. The Department is authorized for 115 sworn officers and 35 non-sworn professional staff, which includes Dispatchers, Community Services Officers, and Administrative Support Staff.

The Antioch Police Department offers a full slate of policing services to the community, including officers dedicated to investigations, traffic enforcement, emergency management, and canine (K-9) units. The Department is comprised of two divisions: Support Services and Field Services. The Field Services Division includes Patrol, Community Engagement and Traffic Bureaus. The Support Services Division consists of Administration, Dispatch, Investigations, Special Operations and Records. Antioch is the only City in Contra Costa County with its own Animal Shelter and Services, both of which fall under the purview of the Police Department.

The Police Department is located in downtown Antioch, near the Marina.
